

REPUBLICANS AT WAR.

DEZENDORF IS NOW THE BOSS AT THE NORFOLK NAVY-YARD.

A Bowden Clerk Discharged—A Mahone Ticket Out—Democrats Secure Bets Only by Giving Odds.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 4.—Special.—The Republicans of this district have begun to make war upon each other in a manner which has produced a sensation at the navy-yard among the employees. When Bowden was the boss of the district the navy-yard people were for Bowden and worked for his success. One of the clerks at the navy-yard, a clerk to the labor board, was one of the staunchest Bowden men, and took the stump for the ex-Congressman. Yesterday he was removed from office at the instance of Dezendorf. Now all of the clerks are throwing up their hats for Dezendorf and declare that he is "the boss dog of the navy-yard."

The Republicans of this district have a ticket out with H. C. Collier's name as the strong candidate for the Third party. Collier is the Mahone ticket and will date. This is the Mahone ticket and will date. Corrigon was seen last night and says he will certainly remain in the field. He declares that the indorsement of Major Dezendorf by the Congressional committee is an insult to the colored Republicans of the district.

Several large bets were made by yesterday. Democrats in almost every instance have to give odds. Chairman Young is very enthusiastic. The Lee and Staples speaking demonstrated much greater interest in politics than was expected, and the voters are enthusiastic over the success of their great meeting. One of the contributions to the campaign fund received today was a magnificent Kentucky horse, given by McEllean & McCleary. The horse will be sold at public auction, and will bring a large sum.

During the week there have been seven marriages in Norfolk and six in Portsmouth. Several others will come off next week.

Wednesday night several young ladies dressed in white, with sheets over their heads, went to the residence of Mr. Rock, on Middle street, Portsmouth. They were met at the door by a Miss Shepherd, who was visiting there. She was so badly frightened that she fainted and had severe convulsions, which lasted all night and through the next day. The joke, it is feared, may prove very serious.

The grand jury of the city of Portsmouth has found a true bill against Mr. W. Wilson for rape and abduction. This is the man who brought the little girl to this city from Washington and was arrested by the police here.

All of the ministers of the city will preach sermons next Sunday on Sabbath observance.

A negro boy was before the police justice this morning charged with putting a little crippled white boy in a boat and setting it adrift on Elizabeth river. The boat was caught by a tug and the little fellow's life saved.

The Maritime Association of the United States will establish a branch of the Association here. Mr. L. J. Lafaucier will be in charge.

In the damage suit in the corporation court here of Daniel B. Cannon against the Norfolk and Carolina railroad for injuries received in a collision, the jury gave the plaintiff $4,000. The amount claimed was $20,000.

A DEMOCRATIC GATHER.

In Pittsylvania Is Addressed by Allen Speakers—Blackwell Converted.

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 4.—Special.—There was an immense Democratic gathering to-day at Design, four miles from Danville. Fully 400 people were in attendance. First, there was a flag raising and a Cleveland, Stevenson and Swanson banner was thrown to the breeze on a pole forty-six feet high.

A cavalry procession was formed at Mount Herman church, two miles from Design, in which 300 horsemen under command of Thomas N. Williams took part. The horsemen rode down to Design, and as they passed the stand with banners flying and making the welkin ring with hurrahs for Cleveland, Stevenson and Swanson, were reviewed by General Thomas L. Rosser, Judge Green, Judge A. M. Aiken, R. W. Peatross and other distinguished guests. The meeting was called to order and General Rosser introduced as the first speaker. He made one of the strongest and most impressive speeches heard in this section during the campaign. After his speech dinner was announced, and the multitude greatly enjoyed the bountiful picnic spread by the neighbors of the Design section.

After dinner and when the crowd had assembled about the stand, Mr. Frank B. Woodson, master of ceremonies, in a few appropriate remarks, remarked Judge John D. Blackwell, of Danville, as the returned prodigal. Judge Blackwell has been a Republican since the day of Mahone's readjustment, and was a list Republican candidate in this section. In this district, being defeated by Posey G. Lester four years ago. No one had heard of his conversion, and hence his introduction as the returned prodigal was a surprise and was received with great applause.

Judge Blackwell made a half hour's speech in which he declared he was not in full accord with the platform of either party, but so great was his hatred of centralization and so much did he detest the Force bill and so great was his admiration for the personal integrity of Grover Cleveland that he was compelled to vote with the Democrats in this contest. The Judge was heartily applauded and warmly congratulated by his many friends.

R. W. Peatross, of Danville, was the next and last speaker, and made a rousing Democratic address.

To-night there was a fine Democratic meeting in the Second ward of this city, at which short speeches were made by General Rosser, Judge Green, Judge Blackwell and others.

To-morrow night North Danville will have a grand Democratic "round up," with speaking, music and pyrotechnics. This section was never more thoroughly aroused in a political campaign.

SHADOW OF THE FORCE BILL.

A Supervisor to be Fined When That Bill Is Passed.

HOUSTON, VA., Nov. 3.—Special.—Mr. Joseph H. Nethery, a well-to-do farmer of this section, was recently appointed supervisor of elections at this precinct. The appointment was a surprise, but being a Democrat and thinking his party had caused his appointment he qualified. After qualifying he found he could not stand at this precinct, and he qualified another. He wrote to Mr. Tinsley, chief supervisor, about this matter and asked what the pay of the officers were.

Here is a copy of Mr. Tinsley's reply: Office of Chief Supervisor of Election, for Western District of Virginia, Lynchburg, Va., October 25, 1892.—J. H. Nethery, Esq., Dear Sir:—You were recommended by Mr. Willard, county chairman of the People's party, I am sorry to say the position does not pay anything, but we hope to have it made a paying office by the Force bill. If you do not want at Houston I do not think you eligible to the position and you had better so inform Mr. Willard at once and recommend some good People's party man who votes at Houston to be appointed in your stead. Very respectfully, W. B. TINSLEY, Chief Supervisor.

Mr. W. G. Stevens, of this place, lost a stable, two horses and a large quantity of forage last night by fire. The stable was first discovered to be on fire about 10 o'clock, and on account of everything in the building being of an inflammable material and very dry, was rapidly consumed. The horses could not be managed, although every effort was made to get them out of the burning building. The origin of the fire is unknown, although there is a strong suspicion it was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Stevens only had $500 insurance on building and stock. His loss is at least $500.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 4.—Special.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, have elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Mrs. C. J. J. J. of Lynchburg, president; Mrs. Charles H. Hall, of Petersburg, vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Cheatham, of Petersburg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. L. Marks, of Petersburg, recording secretary. Mrs. A. W. Nowlin, of Lynchburg, treasurer. A secretary for each of the districts was also elected. At the meeting of the Society at Washington-street Methodist Episcopal church last night an address was made by Mrs. Johanna Hayes, of Baltimore, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which embraces forty-two conferences. In the discharge of her duties as secretary Mrs. Hayes, who is eighty years of age, has traveled over 8,000 miles. The Society was entertained by the Pansies of Washington-street church last night. The Society will meet next November in Hampton, Va.

A run off occurred on the Norfolk and Western railroad this morning near Suffolk, by which the locomotive and seven cars of a material train were overturned and wrecked. The train was badly wrecked. The train was delayed two or three hours. A man whose name was not learned had his leg very painfully sprained.

Mr. John S. Wilkins, a prominent young grocer of this city, and Miss George Smith, a popular young lady of Richmond, will be married on the 15th instant. The Rural Messenger, an agricultural paper, which has been published in Petersburg for the past twenty-one years in the interest of the farmers suspended publication with its issue to-day, the cause being want of support.

At a meeting of A. P. Hill Camp, Confederate Veterans, held last night, it was decided to unveil the bronze statue of General A. P. Hill, which they have in their hall, on the 29th instant. Several prominent citizens of Richmond will be invited to be present on the occasion.

GLOUCESTER AROUSED.

A Grand Rally at the Courthouse—Addressed by Fine Local Talent.

GLOUCESTER COURTHOUSE, Nov. 4.—Special.—A grand rally, which the Democrats have been making preparations for and which has been extensively advertised for several weeks past, came off to-day. Among the speakers who were bidden to speak here to-day was ex-Governor Fitz Lee, and of the crowd of Main street, was terribly wounded by the explosion of some dynamite caps which he brushed from a mantle onto a hot stove, while dusting. The little girl did not know anything about the caps or what they were used for.

With a panic were shattered, the floor of the house was broken up, and the floor of the house was broken up.

A thousand pieces by the explosion. Pieces of shell buried themselves in the flesh of the girl and made very painful wounds. She is very badly but not dangerously hurt, and will not be long in recovering from the shock and injuries.

R. A. Doughton, Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor, spoke in the courthouse here last night to a large crowd. Mr. Doughton is a very pleasant and forcible speaker, and created much enthusiasm. He discussed the Force bill, the tariff (though not in detail) and the danger of an overthrow of Anglo-Saxon rule in the State through the division of the white people. When Mr. Doughton had concluded the audience cried upon H. A. Gudger, who was present, and he responded very happily in a forty-minute speech. It is reported that some of our Democratic friends are going to vote for Harkins, Republican nominee for sheriff, because of personal friendship. Mr. Gudger paid his respects to such a called "a little on the stove" was burst into a thousand pieces by the explosion.

Senator Stubbs made an able and eloquent speech. After dinner Mr. Jones introduced Mr. Boyd Sears, of Matthews county. Mr. Sears made a brief and forcible speech, and was followed by Mr. Robert McEllean, of Middlesex county. Mr. McEllean is one of the most brilliant speakers in Tidewater, and his speech was a masterly effort. Messrs. Jones and T. S. Talliandro also made brief speeches. There are still a good many Third parties in the crowd. It is reported that some of our Democratic friends are going to vote for Harkins, Republican nominee for sheriff, because of personal friendship.

Senator Stubbs made an able and eloquent speech. After dinner Mr. Jones introduced Mr. Boyd Sears, of Matthews county. Mr. Sears made a brief and forcible speech, and was followed by Mr. Robert McEllean, of Middlesex county. Mr. McEllean is one of the most brilliant speakers in Tidewater, and his speech was a masterly effort. Messrs. Jones and T. S. Talliandro also made brief speeches. There are still a good many Third parties in the crowd. It is reported that some of our Democratic friends are going to vote for Harkins, Republican nominee for sheriff, because of personal friendship.

Mr. Gudger paid his respects to such a called "a little on the stove" was burst into a thousand pieces by the explosion.
